Dr. Rhodes Plans To Build Professional Warsaw Nursing Home

Tentative plans are being made by Dr. E. L. Rhodes of Warsaw to build a professional nursing home in Warsaw. For the last three months the architectural firm of Johnson and Hawkins have been submitting plans to the state board of health in Jefferson City to obtain a permit for the home.

The state requires that the building be fireproof and fire resistant. It must have 25 square feet in one separate area to serve in a recreational capacity. The nursing home will have approximately 30 beds. Probably in three or four weeks Dr. Rhodes will meet the final specifications and can begin contracting.

The new home will be located on the property where Dr. Rhodes has his present office.

Ft. Leonard Wood Soldiers Recaptured

Two soldiers, fugitives from the Ft. Leonard Wood stockade, were captured Monday by State Highway Patrol troopers who had been seeking them since Sunday night. They were captured in Morgan county without incident.

They were identified as Robert R. O. Faucett, 23, Indianapolis, Ind., and Bill Garnett Rouse, 18, of Arcadia, Ind. Faucett was the first to be apprehended near junction of County Highway C and State Route 135, about noon while Rouse was not captured until about 4 p. m. northwest of Florence near the Arthur Krupie farm.

Both were "flushed out" by bloodhounds sent to the area Monday morning from Algoa.

The two soldiers had disappeared from Ft. Leonard Wood Saturday and had stolen a pickup truck which they abandoned at Stoutland and stole a car there, which they abandoned near the farm of Raymond Cordes, Route 1, about two miles west of Highway 65 some ten miles south of Sedalia.

Cordes reported his 1956 Buick hardtop sedan was stolen by the two and was seen to be headed east on the country road toward Highway 65.

About 5 o'clock Sunday evening a call was received at the Sedalia police station that a Buick car was in a ditch 13 miles south of Sedalia on County Highway C. The car, it was learned, was that of Cordes and was badly wrecked.

The car apparently had been (Please turn to page 7, Col. 2)

Thailand Control Is Seized

Army's Strong Man, Sarit Thanarat, In Control; Former Premier in Flight

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The army's strong man, Sarit Thanarat, surrounded Bangkok with tanks and seized control of the government today "in the name of the people." The ousted pro-Western Premier P. Pibulsonggram, who has led the government since 1947, was reported fleeing to Malaya.

Not a shot was fired as the army commander in chief took power, with the reported consent of young King Phumiphon Aduldet, two days before a scheduled meeting in Bangkok of the military advisers of the anti-Communist Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Sarit said he acted in the interest of the people who, he claimed, were dissatisfied with the government's handling of last February's elections in which Pibulsonggram retained his premiership by a slim majority.

Sarit insisted at a news conference: "I have nothing to do with politics but took the action I did to force the government of Pibulsonggram to resign. It was necessary for me to do this."

It is believed Sarit acted quickly to save his own position as commander of the army.

Sarit told newsmen he wanted a new government as soon as possible but did not know yet what form it would take. He consulted with his lawyers to determine whether to dissolve the National Assembly. Asked if he would become the new Premier Sarit replied that "many people want to be premier."

After the seizure, Sarit modestly proclaimed himself as governor of Bangkok, rather than premier. In that capacity he cabled Prince Wan Waihayakon, Thailand's foreign minister and retiring president of the U. N. General Assembly, that he is still the Thai representative at the U. N.

Based On Engineers' Master Plan

New Municipal Building, Fire Stations Are Said Badly Needed

By D. Kelly Scruton

First steps in proposing the construction of a new Municipal building at a cost of $1,000,000 and to build two new fire stations costing a total of $150,000, were taken Monday night by the City Council with the introducing of ordinances calling for a special election for the people to vote on general obligation bonds covering both figures.

The bond proposal is an outgrowth of a recommendation made to the City Council early in 1957 by the Sedalia Planning and Zoning Commission. Commission Chairman S. J. Timburius pointed out to the Council Monday that the commission's proposal was based on the Sedalia master plan for future growth, drawn up by Hare, and Hare, city planning engineers, in collaboration with the Planning Commission.

"We feel that this proposal is badly needed, and needed now," Timburius stated for the commission. "The fire stations will give much needed protection to sections of the city that are located at a distance from the original stations on South Kentucky and Fourth and Montgomery Streets. It will bring our level of fire protection into line with the 1957 standards."

"The Municipal Building, besides providing coordinated headquarters for the citizens protection, will give Sedalia a modern community center which will contribute greatly to the continued growth of our city. We believe the new facilities will help us to attract 'out-of-town' money all year round, rather than only two weeks as with the State Fair. They should also help us get the new industrial payrolls we have been trying so hard to attract, and without which the growth and prosperity of Sedalia is impossible," he concluded.

It has been pointed out the fire stations have been recommended not only by the City Planning Commission and Hare and Hare, but also by the Fire Inspection Bureau. The two new stations will be located in east Sedalia and west Sedalia. The east Sedalia station will be a replacement for the one on East Fourth to a location for better service in the entire east portion of the city. The west Sedalia station will be an entirely new addition, giving Sedalia three companies instead of the present two.

It was brought out these two new stations will be of a modern design, not to house one fire truck but two. However, at the present time only one truck in each station will be had, but the construction is looking to future demands.

If and when Sedalia continues to expand and additional equipment is needed, there will be room to house such equipment.

The $150,000 bond issue will be for the purchase of the sites, construction of the two buildings and the purchase of two new pumper-type fire trucks.

The Municipal Building will be equipped with a modern auditorium with a seating capacity of 2,500, which will be available to all Sedalia organizations for indoors sports events, music, dramatics, and similar activities. The auditorium will also be available for out-of-town organizations for business assemblies and conventions. Kitchen catering, facilities will be provided off the main auditorium floor.

In addition, there will be smaller meeting rooms available to Sedalia organizations and activities. The new building will contain a modern coordinated headquarters for police, fire, and civil defense, and will house all other city offices on the ground floor.

The $1,000,000 will be used to purchase the site, facilities and such equipment as is necessary and will give Sedalia adequate city office space and equipment second to none in Missouri for a city this size or larger.

Hearing On Injunction

Prepares 200 Subpoenae In Case Against Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The federal government was preparing about 200 subpoenae today for witnesses in its case against Gov. Orval Faubus' intervention with Central High School integration.

A court source said the subpoenae were being prepared for the scheduled hearing Friday on the government's request for a preliminary injunction against Faubus' use of the guard to hold back Negro students.

Meanwhile, Rep. Brooks Hays, acting in his role as intermediary between the federal government and Gov. Faubus, had another talk scheduled with the governor at the mansion today.

Hays is the Arkansas Democrat who helped arrange Saturday's meeting between President Eisenhower and Faubus.

He flew to Little Rock from Texas yesterday, saw Faubus, and told reporters he will meet with him again today. He said: "A solution cannot be postponed much longer. The hopes of the people of the country, which have been built up, simply cannot be frustrated."

Somebody has to give in to dissolve the impasse in Little Rock, Hays said, posing the question, "But how to give in without surrendering?"

Who will surrender? "I don't know," he replied. He added: "There is no occasion for pessimism simply because we have not tied up this package."

Little Rock today is one big question-mark.

Will Faubus withdraw the guardsmen from the high school within the next few days and permit Negroes to enroll? Many people believe so.

Or will he sit tight until Friday, then respond to the summons to appear in U.S. District Court, and let the federal government issue an injunction ordering him to stop interfering any longer with the integration of the school? Others believe this is Faubus' strategy.

The governor's mansion is wrapped in silence.

Mixed Classes Are Resumed In Nashville

HIGHER ATTENDANCE RECORDED AT SIX INTEGRATED SCHOOLS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Children trooped back to elementary schools with integrated first grade classes today under protection of a federal court injunction and vigilant city police.

There were no incidents, in contrast to those which disrupted the start of mixed classes last week and which was climaxed by a school dynamiting.

Classes resumed after a long weekend which included Monday off to go to the state fair.

Increased attendance was recorded at the six integrated schools, where last week's violence kept hundreds of children at home.

Most of the 12 Negroes enrolled in mixed classes were in school today. Exact attendance figures were not immediately available.

Back in operation was the Hattie Cotton School, where a dynamite blast last Tuesday caused heavy damage. Classes were being conducted on a morning and afternoon schedule in undamaged and hastily repaired classrooms. The one Negro enrolled there did not show up today.

Election Date November 5

Would Build New Municipal Building, Two Fire Houses

A $1,150,000 bond issue is to be presented to the voters of Sedalia on Tuesday, Nov. 5, for a Municipal Building and two fire stations. The Municipal Building issue is for $1,000,000 and the combined issue for the two fire stations amounts to $150,000, according to ordinances introduced at the City Council meeting Monday night.

Both figures include all costs, the purchase of sites, facilities and equipment. The $150,000 also includes not only the building and sites, but also money for the purchase of two new fire truck pumps, to be housed in the new stations.

The bonds will be general obligation bonds. It is one of the largest bond issues to be presented to the Sedalia voters in one proposal.

The ordinances also set the date for the special election, the appointment of judges and clerks, and the voting polls.

In the absence of Mayor Julian H. Bagby, President Pro Tem C. L. Kelley, councilman from the Fourth Ward, presided over the meeting. He appointed U. L. Howerton as acting city clerk in the absence of City Clerk W. C. Ream.

John C. McCloskey sat as Acting City Councilor in the absence of William F. Brown.

Mayor Bagby, Clerk Ream and Councilor Brown are attending the annual convention of the Missouri Municipal League in St. Louis.

The annual tax levy ordinance was given final passage Monday night and calls for the following tax on the $100 valuation: .96106 for general revenue fund, .00048 for interest; .03277 for Hospital No. 2 bonds, .00024 for interest; .039 park improvement bonds, .00078 interest; .1864 for public sewer bonds, .03334 interest; .0190 Army bonds, .00048 interest; .100 for library maintenance, .0158 library bonds, .00271 interest; .0577 for the John Homer Bothwell bonds voted in 1955 and .03202 interest; .050 firemen's pension fund; for a total of $1.50 per $100 valuation.

It was pointed out the present tax levy was set in 1948 and has never been raised in the past nine years.

Other ordinances which were given final passage were: rezoning of lots 35 and 36, block 1, Rainbow Second Addition, from residential to light manufacturing and lots 16 through 30, block 7, Rainbow Second Addition from apartments to highway business; awarding the contract for paving with a six-inch rock base with asphalt mat coating of New England Drive, 11th to 14th to the W. J. Menefee Construction Co.; awarding the contract for a sewer lateral No. 4 in District 119 to the J. W. Atkinson Construction Co., awarding the contract for curb and guttering of New England Drive to the W. A. Rayl and Sons Construction Co.; and curb and guttering ordinances for East 17th from Collins to Marvin, West 14th from Sneed west 144 feet and from Carr to Barrett, Harrison.

(Please turn to page 4, Column 6)

That works out to about $2.019 for every man, woman and child in the country.

The Commerce Department's report on personal income covers wages and salaries, the net income of proprietorships and partnerships—both farm and nonfarm—as well as dividends and interests, net rents received by landlords and other types of individual income.

The seasonally adjusted annual rate for August was $347,300,000, compared to $346,200,000 in July.

About half the July-August rise was in wage and salary payments, with most of the remainder in proprietors' income. Payroll increases were noted over the month in most private industries and in government. However, there was a slight drop in such categories as construction, manufacturing and mining.

Total nonagricultural income moved upward from an adjusted annual rate of 330½ billion dollars in July to $331,300,000,000 in August. Total agricultural income climbed by 300 million dollars to an annual rate of 16 billion.

For the first eight months of this year, personal income was at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of nearly 342 billion dollars, compared to just over 323 billion in the corresponding period of last year and nearly 327 billion for the full year of 1956.

The biggest jump here was in wage and salary payments. They were at a rate of more than 238 billion dollars for the January-August period this year, compared to 224½ billion for the same eight months of 1956.

Reports US Planes Fly Over Alexandria

CAIRO — The Cairo newspaper Al Ahran said today planes from the U.S. 8th Fleet flew near the port city of Alexandria and close to Egyptian territorial waters during maneuvers.

Egyptian authorities issued a strong warning to all planes not to approach the Egyptian coast or fly over Egyptian territory without prior permission, Al Ahran said. Otherwise, it added, Egypt would not be responsible for the consequences.

Senate Prober To Detroit Again For Inquiry

DETROIT — The chief counsel of the Senate Rackets Committee returned to Detroit last night to continue the investigation of James R. Hoffa, Midwest leader of the Teamsters Union.

Robert F. Kennedy would say only that he wanted to "see some people here in Detroit," where Hoffa heads a Teamsters local. He refused to say specifically what he was investigating or how long he would be here.

Kennedy's appearance here was his second in two weeks. He was here Sept. 4 in connection with Hoffa's affairs.

In Washington yesterday Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) of the Senate Rackets Committee said his group plans to resume its investigation of Hoffa. McClellan said Hoffa will be invited but not required to be present at the new hearings, tentatively set to begin Sept. 24.

The 44-year-old Hoffa is the front-running candidate for the $50,000-a-year job being vacated by Teamsters President Dave Beck. Beck also has been investigated by the committee and is alleged by it to have misused some $300,000 in union funds.

McClellan said that when the committee resumes its study of Hoffa there will be questions brought up about alleged misuse of union money and conflicts of interest.

Hoffa has said he is undecided whether he will appear at the new hearings.

Experimental Rocket Engine Blast Kills One and Injures Six

DOVER, N. J. — An experimental rocket engine that was not running suddenly exploded yesterday, burning one man to death and injuring six others.

Herbert L. Bell, 28, Arlington, Tex., died when the engine blew up during a "routine test" at the naval air rocket test station at nearby Lake Denmark. The test was being staged by Reaction Motors, Inc., makers of the engine.

Bell was one of four representatives of the Chance-Vought Aircraft Co. of Dallas who had come here to watch the test. His companions and three other men suffered burns in the blast.

In fair condition at Dover General Hospital were William Delecker, Hackettstown; Hjalmar Lagerquist, Ramsey; and R. L. Johnson and R. D. Tweedy of Chance-Vought. Glen Repp, Dallas, and Elmer Baierl, Hackettstown, were treated for burns and released.

Cause of the blast was not determined.

One Rocket Is Fired, Another Spews Flame But Stays on Ground

MISSILE TEST CENTER, Cape Canaveral, Fla. — One rocket streaked aloft and another didn't in tests yesterday at this security-locked experimental base.

Spokesman at Patrick Air Force Base confirmed a rocket firing at 2:20 p.m. No details were provided. Informed sources in Washington said the missile was one of the smaller variety.

Nothing official was learned about the other rocket, which put on a spectacular pyrotechnic show for distant viewers while it stood upright on a launching pad in the intermediate-range firing area.

Observers reported that vapor shot out of the white-hulled missile for more than an hour, then smoke and flame bloomed from around the rocket's base, and vapor clouds obscured the missile. Later, according to John Morton, reporter for the Miami Herald, the rocket appeared to be discharging liquid oxygen from its fuel tanks.

Reports Soviet Scientists Will Launch Satellite

LONDON — Moscow radio said today Soviet scientists will launch their first artificial earth satellite shortly.

The first satellites "will be heavier than those being designed in the U. S. A.," the broadcast said.

"The Soviet artificial satellites will be equipped with a powerful radio transmitter from which signals will be picked up by many radio amateurs."

The broadcast quoted a Tass dispatch for newspapers abroad.

"The launching of the first artificial satellites, whatever their defects, will mean that man has mastered the first cosmic speed of nearly eight kilometers (five miles) per second," the radio said.

"In order for it to leave the earth completely and become a satellite of the sun, i. e., an independent planet, it must reach the second speed of 11.2 kilometers (seven miles) per second."

"The third cosmic speed, 16.5 kilometers (nearly 11 miles) per second is the minimum essential to leave the solar system."

The broadcast said that in the 1957-1958 International Geophysical Year, the scientists will launch 125 rockets from the Soviet Union and Antarctica to observe the upper atmosphere.

Patrolman Loses Life in Russian Roulette at Garage

CLEVELAND — Patrolman Howard Rickert, 36, thought his chances were 50-50 if he played Russian roulette with three cartridges in a six-shot police revolver.

He died early today of a bullet wound in the head.

His partner, George Trammel, said Rickert appeared in good humor when he entered the roll call room at the police garage last night.

"Let's play Russian roulette," said Rickert.

Neither Trammel nor two ambulance men eating lunch at a table paid much attention.

Rickert walked back and forth with the gun in his hand and they heard him say: "Four is too many. My chances would only be 40-60. Three are better. I've got a 50-50 chance."

Nobody was watching Rickert when they heard the shot.

Plowing Contest Gets Underway At Site in Ohio

PEEBLES, Ohio — The biggest sod-busting contest in the world got under way today with the staccato fanfare of tractor exhausts.

A rain-softened, 2,500-acre tract near this Adams County village is the arena. On it are pitted the best farmers in the United States and 14 other nations.

Officially called the 1957 World's Conservation and Plowing Contest, the event also is being drummed as the "World's Fair of Agriculture."

By its close Friday evening, sponsors of the event predict total attendance will hit 250,000.

This is America's first time to host the five-year-old event, which started in Canada in 1953.

Tractors are supplying all the horsepower and scores of arm machinery manufacturers are exhibiting their wares in an effort to convince farmers to become even more mechanized.

Together with other commercial, educational and conservation displays, the exhibits cover more than 100 acres.

After the Ohio state contests today will be the national contests tomorrow and the world contests Thursday and Friday.

So far America has yet to win a world title.

Allied Ships Head to Huge Maneuvers

LONDON (AP)—Warships of seven Western allies slipped out of British ports in the predawn darkness today for huge NATO exercises to protect the Atlantic lifeline.

One by one and in pairs more than 200 fighting ships left for rendezvous points in NATO's first full-scale Atlantic maneuvers in four years.

The 58 U.S. warships were led by the giant carrier Forrestal and the submarine Nautilus, world's first atomic-powered underwater craft.

The exercise has been dubbed "Strikeback." One of its prime objects is to work out ways to keep the Atlantic highway open against marauding submarines.

The Soviet Union is known to be building up the greatest underwater fleet the world has ever known.

Besides the United States, other nations taking part are Britain, Canada, France, the Netherlands, Portugal and Norway.

The exercises start officially Thursday.

Asian flu attacked British sailors and knocked four ships out of the exercise.

Otherwise, a NATO spokesman said, the mighty force carrying 75,000 men headed into the Atlantic according to plan.

A striking fleet of 100 ships commanded by U.S. Vice Adm. Robert B. Pirie will go into action against an imaginary enemy force in the North Atlantic and the North Sea. These areas would be most vulnerable to attack by Russia's submarines.

Pirie is directing operations from the Forrestal.

The Nautilus heads the enemy forces. It is backed up by jet bombers of the Royal Air Force.

Pirie is concentrating on defending channels through which Soviet submarines could slip if they set about cutting off the lifeline to Europe.

To Probe Past Of Former Star For Death Clues

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Officers probing the strangulation of one-time screen star Rhea (Ginger) Mitchell have indicated they will turn to the 63-year-old spinster's past for some clue to her slayer.

Sought for questioning was a balding, middle-aged man reported to have kept company recently with her.

Miss Mitchell, who played opposite William S. Hart, Tom Mix and other Western heroes in silent pictures, was found dead yesterday in a large apartment house, the second she had managed in the past year.

Police in Seattle, Wash., were asked to question Miss Mitchell's only known relative, an aunt, Mrs. John Benson.

Homicide investigators said they also plan to talk with the woman's friends and contemporaries from her film successes of the mid-1920s, including actresses Anna Q. Nilsson and May McAvoy.

The body was found in a tiny dressing room of Miss Mitchell's apartment. A belt from her blue silk dressing gown was knotted tightly about her throat.

There were slight scratches on her throat and her left eye was slightly discolored, but officers said there was no other evidence of a struggle and none that the red-haired former actress had been sexually attacked.

Group Discusses Alternatives to Gov't Farm Program

KANSAS CITY (AP)—At least eight alternatives to the government farm program were discussed by more than 100 farmers from 19 states yesterday without reaching any conclusions.

They were attending a two-day wheat conference sponsored by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

George Smith, America, N. D., drew applause with this declaration: "What's the matter with free enterprise? It seems we are afraid of it. Let's throw the government program out and try it."

But no one really supported Smith's proposal.

R. V. Converse, Spearman, Tex., backed the government plan.

"Industry is organized," Converse said. "If you can't get together to control your production you will have your prices set for you by those who are organized. The government is kind enough to help get you organized."

Ike's Press Secretary Becomes Grandfather
NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—James C. Hagerty, 48-year-old press secretary to President Eisenhower, became a grandfather today.

Hagerty concluded a news conference with reporters at the President's vacation headquarters with the remark:

"That's all—except that I have a very pleasant personal announcement to make."

He then reported his son and daughter-in-law, Marine Lt. and Mrs. Roger Hagerty, became the parents of an 8-pound, 5-ounce boy early today. The baby—named James Roger after proud father and even prouder grandfather—was born at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Quantico, Va., where young Hagerty, 25, is stationed.

Flu Outbreaks Spread Through British Navy

LONDON (AP)—Outbreaks of suspected Asian flu spread today through the navy and threatened to close schools and industry in some parts of Britain.

Four ships scheduled to take part in the NATO Atlantic exercise "Strikeback" stayed behind when the rest of the Allied fleet sailed for the rendezvous point.

At the north midland city of Derby 60 bus drivers were down with flu. At one Derby school, 129 children were ill.

At Donisthorpe, some 15 miles to the south, a colliery reported the sick list of miners rose to 220.

Donald apparently was thrown against the dash of his fathers car and received a fracture about the same location of a previous fracture of the arm. He was taken to the Bothwell Hospital where Dr. A. L. Walter attended him and x-ray pictures were taken of the arm.

The front end of the Mercury was badly damaged and the left front portion of the Chevrolet extensively damaged.

Farm Income Raise Based On Payments

WASHINGTON (AP)—The increase in farm income this year over last may be limited largely to bigger government payments under the soil bank program.

Preliminary figures compiled by the Agriculture Department indicate that 1957 net farm income may be about half a billion dollars more than last year's $12,100,000,000. Net income is the amount left after paying production costs.

Payments to farmers for retiring land from surplus crops under the soil bank program are expected to total about 738 million dollars this year compared with about 250 millions last year.

Farm prices have been averaging about 3 per cent higher this year than last, but the volume of marketings has been smaller.

A department report issued yesterday said that net income for the first three quarters of this year ran at the annual rate of about $12,300,000,000 compared to $11,900,000,000 for the corresponding period last year.

The report said also that farm operating costs are running above a year ago, with prices paid by farmers higher than in the third quarter of 1956 for all production items except livestock feed and fertilizer. However, the increase in expenses has not been as large as that in cash receipts from marketings and government payments.

Revised figures on 1956 net income showed an average of $2,432 for farms compared with $2,277 in 1955 and a recent peak of $2,674 in 1951.

Farm averages by states ranged from a high of $14,094 in Arizona, where big livestock units are the pattern, to a low of $668 in West Virginia. California was second highest with an average of $8,289 and Florida third with $5,259.

Councilman Dr. Ira White asked permission for the police department to order winter uniforms, the money being included in the budget. Permission was granted.

Councilman Harry Moore read three petitions of property owners desiring sanitary sewers—one from Ollie W. Lewis for Lateral No. 1, District 133, West Fifth between Limit and Sunset Drive; one from Walter S. Coats for a Lateral No. 5 in District 138, to be built under tax bills; and one for permission to connect with the sewer line by Mrs. John J. Miller, 1303 North Grand, under private contract, but under supervision of the city engineer. Mrs. Miller's request was granted. The other petitions were referred to the city engineer.

Certification of the recent special election regarding the voting on two franchises to the Missouri Public Service Co., one for electricity and one for gas for 20 years, was approved by the Council as reported by Mayor Julian H. Bagby and City Clerk W. C. Ream, who surveyed the voting. The vote on the electricity franchise was 1900 for and 101 against and for gas 1903 for and 100 against.

Two resolutions were passed, one for curb and guttering on Harrison from the south-line of the MKT right-of-way south to 23rd, and the other for paving the same area with a hot mix asphalt mat coat.

An ordinance was introduced providing for the City to purchase or condemn certain nine tracts or parcels of land for the purpose of using them for city off-street parking lots.

The nine properties are located at: Main and Kentucky, Third and Osage, Third and Lamine, Fourth and Lamine, Fifth and Osage, Main and Lamine, Main and Massachusetts, Second and Kentucky, and Lamine and Pacific.

Other ordinances introduced were for a sewer Lateral No. 2 in District 138 and for a sewer Lateral No. 1 in District 140.

Acting Mayor Kelley announced a remonstrance on curb and guttering and paving with a black top asphalt mat coat West Fifth from State Fair Blvd. to Woodlawn Drive was sufficient to kill the proposal.

"Wahoo," Sounds Charge

Many years ago when there were no houses on Pfeiffer's Prairie along Montau and Vermont between Eleventh and Fourteenth streets the neighborhood children used to play Indians and fight the Russo-Jap war.

One of the blood curdling yells was "Wahoo." It had the connotation of an Indian warwhoop but no one knew what it meant.

There is a small North American tree known as the burning bush which is sometimes planted for ornament, the fruit of which ripens in October and persists until midwinter. Its name is Wahoo.

Forty miles west of Omaha, there is a town of 3,500 population named Wahoo. Whether it got its name from the Indians or from the burning bush tree, there is an editor up there who has figured out just what the federal government costs you — and related the cost of taxation to other costs you must bear. His paper is a small business with a circulation of 4,500. Last year the federal government took $6.53 per hour for every hour the plant was in operation. As he puts it, that was equal to the pay of three skilled workmen — that is

"three skilled workmen that never showed up for work."

Publisher Guy T. Ludi then did some more calculating. His federal taxes came to over $260 in cash each week, and amounted to nine cents out of every dollar taken in, whether or not a profit was made on the transaction. And those taxes took enough money out of the plant to pay for any one of the following:

Heat for 22 years; postage for nine years, electric lights for 32 years; water for 103 years; electric power for nine years; electric heat for typesetting machines for 22 years; telephones for 21 years; and insurance for 15 years.

"What are we going to do about it?" asks Mr. Ludi, who then answers his own question: "We don't know. We know that spending by government is too high. . . . that taxes are too high and going higher. . . . Actually, we would propose that tax-conscious people everywhere seriously consider the problem before the next primary election of 1958. At that time something can be done if everyone will crack down on the spenders in Washington."

But who's brave enough to yell "Wahoo" and charge against the spendthrift enemy?

Soviet Skill In Near East Penetration

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson is now reporting from the vitally important near East.)

By DREW PEARSON

BEYROUT — (via Radio) — An important vote comes up in the United Nations today in New York which will affect American leadership in the Arab world and this most vital part of the entire world. It's a vote to decide between Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand and Dr. Charles Malik, foreign minister of Lebanon, as next President of the UN general assembly. Both are good men and both are excellent friends of the United States.

Paradoxically, the Soviet bloc is supporting Malik despite the fact that he is bitterly opposed to Soviet penetration of the near East. He has battled against Communism and is one of the best Arab friends the United States has. Moscow is supporting him in the UN election for just one reason: The Kremlin is wooing the Arab world with every device and gimmick in its copious bag of tricks and one of them is to put the United States in the position of opposing the Arab, Malik, as President of the UN assembly.

At this writing it looks as if this would happen. Some time ago the United States made a pledge to Munro to support him for the assembly presidency. Now we are in the embarrassing position of having either to break that pledge or to vote against our best friend in the Arab world. The situation illustrates the Soviet's current diplomatic skill unlike the blundering days when Molotov was at the helm. The Soviet today is not missing a single trick.

Note — It happens that Malik and Munro are good friends and have personal admiration for each other. Western diplomats have been hoping that Munro withdraw from the election, thereby releasing the United States from its pledge.

Crucial Penetration
Soviet penetration of the near East is just as serious as Loy Henderson reported to Washington — in fact, considerably more serious than the temporizing statement of John Foster Dulles indicated last week. What Moscow has done is stake out a triangular claim in the three most crucial parts of an area that controls 70 per cent of the world's oil which dominates the pathway to Asia and which has been sought after by rulers of the world since before the days of Christ.

The three points of this Soviet triangle are the Suez Canal, which Moscow can dominate through its friend, Egypt's Nasser; Yemen, at the mouth of the Red Sea, and Syria, which has just installed a pro-Soviet government. Yemen, which lies next to the British desert outpost of Aden guarding the entrance to the Red Sea, has recently received 200 Russian Mig's. There probably isn't one Yemenite who can fly a Mig. They can drive camels and goats with the same techniques used in the days of Abraham, but not Mig's. Furthermore, the Mig's are of no value to them except one purpose: to rout the British and scare King Saud and his oil away from the Arabian-American Oil Co.

Further north, in Syria, Moscow has negotiated the following secret arms deal with the military men who have taken over the Syrian government: $150,000,000 worth of Russian arms for Syria, including six submarines, three squadrons of Russian Mig-19s — the fastest fighter plane Russia produces — plus eight airfields to be built in Syria before 1960.

Skilled Subversion

To understand the skill with which Moscow has been subverting in the near East you have

Guest Editorial

LITITZ (Penn.) RECORD: Good Things Happen, Too! People often forget that life really isn't so bad. Consider these facts about 1957. Some 20,000,000 teen-agers won't be hauled into court as juvenile delinquents. About 60 million auto drivers won't get traffic tickets and won't be stopped by the law.

About 640 million acres of forest lands will not go up in smoke. Over 68 million persons will work at paying jobs.

People who buy cars, refrigerators, cashing machines and other things on time, will pay off over 39 billion dollars worth of installment credit.

So don't let the daily headlines fool you — it's still a great world to live in!

to realize the strategic importance of Syria geographically. It is the key to the Arab states of the near East. You can't get to Iraq from the Mediterranean without passing through Syria. You can't get to Jordan without passing through Syria. You can't get to Saudi Arabia or Kuwait on the Persian Gulf without flying over or passing through Syria.

And this country sitting squarely astride the crossroads of the Arab near East is now definitely dominated by Russia.

In brief, while the state department has been worrying about the German elections, stewing over passports for Americans wanting to go to China, and currying favor with the aging Chiang Kai-Shek, the Kremlin has been skillfully staking out a strategic triangle in this part of the world which can squeeze Europe's oil-dependent factories dry as a sucked lemon and which can call the political tune for North Africa. For, as the Near East goes between Communism and the West, so goes Africa.

How Soviet Operates
Here are some of the techniques used by the Soviet to subvert this area. One is to win over the clergy, especially the Moslem clergy. Another is to win the intellectuals, especially the poor intellectuals. A Moslem Hodja will receive an emissary from Russian Tashkent saying the Moslem people there want his learned opinion on some matter of Moslem law. He takes this seriously, writes his opinion, and is surprised a month later to receive 1,000 pounds. Thereafter he is a friend of Russia.

Or a Lebanese or a Syrian professor will be asked to write an article on astronomy for an obscure Soviet magazine. He then receives 100 pounds. Though he won't know it, the article will be thrown away but he will be asked to write every month or so and receives a steady income from Moscow.

About 200 intellectuals alone in the small country of Lebanon have thus been won over to the Soviet orbit. The United States recently sent ten million dollars to King Saud. We'd have been much wiser to have sent him nine and a half million and devoted the other half million to discreet expenditure with the Moslem clergy and intellectuals who mould public opinion. American policy has been relying too heavily on arms and kings and neglecting the masses. The Soviet talks about the masses while ignoring them and bets its money on those who can influence the masses.

Learning Hard Way

Normally when the Communist party gets a foothold in any free nation the world must perforce view it as a danger and a potential tragedy.

But, while the peril is just as real in India as anywhere in the world, the inroads of communism there could turn out to be a blessing in disguise.

The Indian definition of "neutrality" between East and West has from the start meant a curious leaning toward the East. So immersed in hatred of Western colonialism were the Indians that they could see no menace in Red tyranny.

Then the Communist party won ground in their country—in the southern state of Kerala. And now India is beginning to learn first hand what it refused to face abroad.

At first moderate in behavior, the Communists in Kerala now are trying to push through legislation to gain control of all private schools. Agitation in several sectors are being charged by Indian industrialists with "systematic sabotage" of important factory installations.

We of the West can't help wondering, now that the Communists have found their way inside the gates, just how neutral the Indian people can continue to feel toward these "friends of the masses" who devote themselves to clobbering the masses.

"Where Would You Build?"

Ike Expects Integration Fuss to Ease

By ED CREEGH
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration expects the feuding and fussing over school integration to die down before long for two main reasons:

1. Public opinion. President Eisenhower has said this on the record.

2. Dollars and cents. Eisenhower hasn't said this publicly, but it can be stated that he thinks business and industrial pressure will quell violence, and that it will, in the not too distant future, force compliance with federal court antisegregation orders.

One man close to the President puts it this way: "Suppose you wanted to build a plant in the South. Where would you build it — in Arkansas or in Missouri?" He meant, of course, in a state where troops have been called out or in a state where integration has started smoothly.

In other words, would you invest your money in a state where there's trouble or in a state where peace seems assured?

This can't help influencing governors and other key officials of Southern states.

Arkansas, the state where National Guard troops have been posted to keep some Negro pupils out of a high school in Little Rock, is a good example.

It's a poor state, measured by such things as industrial resources. It wants more industry. It has paid for a national advertising campaign to attract investment by outsiders.

Whatever the local sentiment may be on the integration question, administration officials don't see how Gov. Orval E. Faubus can resist pressure to calm things down if he wants to raise living standards in his state. Nobody doubts that he does want that.

This sort of pressure is by no means confined to Arkansas.

Reporter William Hines told in last Sunday's Washington Star of a talk he had some months ago

We quietly passed the word that trouble here would be bad for business and we weren't going to have any. We have this thing so well looked up that a cab driver couldn't get a gasoline credit card without our say-so."

"No, there isn't going to be any trouble."

There wasn't. And the Eisenhower people think similar pressure — maybe you could call it public opinion engineered from above — will prevail elsewhere in the South, allowing for different local situations and expecting no overnight miracles.

Some of Eisenhower's critics say he should take a firmer stand against violence and come out unequivocally for integration. The Democratic Advisory Council said Sunday, for instance, that he "has lost an opportunity to exert leadership in behalf of law and order."

The White House showed itself irked at this and a number of similar criticisms, not all of them from partisan sources.

Plainly, the President's policy is to let things work themselves out among the people involved — confident that, in the long run, the American people will prove themselves law-abiding without any uncalled-for mixing in a difficult situation by people from Washington.

If Eisenhower is right, his policy will go down in history as one of wisdom.

If he is wrong, the responsibility for the stoning of children and for the dynamiting of schools—as in Nashville, Tenn.—may be laid at his door.

Improved Outlook For Those With Brain Clot

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

A reader asks what are the chances for recovery from a cerebral thrombosis in a man of 54 with partial paralysis of the left arm and leg. The stroke occurred about seven months ago and both arm and leg are slowly improving.

To this question one can give a somewhat hopeful but reserved answer. The fact that improvement is still taking place is a good sign. But no one can say just how far this improvement will go.

A cerebral thrombosis refers to a clot in one of the blood vessels supplying the brain. This is one form of "stroke" or "apoplexy." The latter terms are used for either clots occurring in the blood vessels of the brain or bleeding into the brain tissue. Both as a rule are the result of some hardening of the blood vessels supplying the brain which often develops as one grows older.

What symptoms develop from a stroke depend partly on whether it is caused by bleeding or by a clot. What part of the brain is involved and how large an area the beginning.

Many people survive even a fairly severe stroke and return to reasonably good health. Some can suffer several strokes without being too badly incapacitated.

There is little which medicine can do at the time a stroke is actually occurring. In fact the damage has usually been done by the time the physician arrives on the scene.

However, anyone who suffers a stroke should have medical attention since what is done—or not done—may influence the degree of later improvement.

In achieving the greatest amount of improvement the will to get well is considered extremely important. Without this help from the patient the physician is severely handicapped.

The nursing care which the patient receives is of great value. The medical treatment includes early exercise and electric stimulation of the muscles.

There has been much work done on rehabilitation measures in recent years. Recovery often goes much farther than was thought possible. Both active steps taken by the patient at the proper time and passive measures achieved by physiotherapy and the like have contributed to this improved outlook.

King Presents Jewels To Young Princess For Betrothal Gift

ISTANBUL, Turkey —A hazel-eyed little princess who soon will go back to school has received a gift of diamonds and emeralds from King Faisal II of Iraq in quiet ceremonies sealing their betrothal.

Princess Fazelat, 16-year-old descendant of Egyptian and Ottoman monarchs, was given the jewels yesterday by Iraq's Premier Ali Jawdat and Abdulla Bakir, chief of the royal palace. They flew to Istanbul for the presentation at a friend's villa on the Bosphorus.

The brown-haired princess was presented with a diamond and emerald ring and a flower-shaped brooch with an emerald in the center and diamonds for petals.

There also was a letter from the 22-year-old King, who proposed last Thursday night in Istanbul, where he had spent a two-month vacation. The marriage is not expected to take place until the princess completes school next year.

Legion Told That Veterans Are Forgotten

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The American Legion today heard a report that "the nation's feelings of obligation and gratitude toward veterans seems to have lessened to a noticeable degree."

The report came from Harvey V. Higley, administrator of veterans affairs, as the Legion turned from parading to the opening session of its 39th annual convention.

Higley called in a prepared address for establishment of an official or legislative policy on the care of sick and disabled non-service-connected veterans — those whose disabilities were not incurred in military service.

"If the policy shall be not to take care of the non-service-connected, this should be frankly stated," he said, "so that others — states, counties and cities — may take up the load."

"For remember, we are not talking about cases. We are talking about sick men who served their country when it was in sore distress — men who cannot afford to pay for hospital care."

"The question 'Whose problem is this?' should be answered."

Higley said that at present all service-connected cases are cared for immediately, but we do have 22,000 non-service-connected veterans on our waiting list, of whom 17,000 are suffering from mental illness."

He said Congress never has declared the Veterans Administration should hospitalize the non-service-connected, but rather that they can be hospitalized if they cannot pay and if the VA has beds available.

"So long as a definite policy is lacking," said Higley, "requests for new and additional beds will receive little if any consideration."

Phillip M. Talbott, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, urged in a prepared address that the Legion continue to fight against what he called federalizing of education.

"This past year," Talbott said, "has found the Legion and the Chamber once again united in a common cause — this time to protect our public schools from federal government control."

"The school bill has been rejected by the House of Representatives, but you and I must waste no time congratulating one another."

"A new bill will be laid before the next session of the Congress, and the proponents of federal intervention have organized a giant campaign for its adoption. We have our work to do all over again."

driven due east from the Cordes farm and headed across Highway 65 and over to Route C. One of the two occupants was injured. There was evidence the passenger had been thrown against the windshield and the dashboard of the vehicle was damaged where his body had been thrown against it.

It was Rouse who had a front tooth broken off and a slight bruise on his head.
As soon as it was determined the car was that of Cordes, the state troopers began a search of the area for the escapees. Later it was learned two men tried to get a farmer to let them make a long distance call to Indiana over his telephone but they were not permitted to do so.

They were later reported near Highway 135 and County Highway CC. The search then turned to that area, where empty houses and barns were searched. Believing they might try and steal another car, the road block was set up by Sgt. Van Winkle.

At 3 a. m. when no trace of the two was found, the Patrol gave the search up but contacted farmers in the area if they were seen to notify them immediately. Shortly before 6 a. m. Monday the Sedalia police received a call that two men were seen walking south on 135 toward the gold fish hatcheries. They in turn notified Sgt. Van Winkle.

Sgt. Van Winkle notified the State Patrol and troopers from the Jefferson City Troop F along with Troopers Robert Stockdell and Van Winkle of Sedalia, began a systematic search.

Dogs were soon brought in and a place in a corn field some distance east from the intersection was found where they had slept during the night. The two had separated earlier, with Faucett leaving to go to look for food and it was indicated an automobile while Rouse stayed in the immediate area until about 9 o'clock.

According to Rouse, when Faucett didn't show by 9 o'clock he took off in the opposite direction, feeling that Faucett had already been captured.

According to Van Winkle they had started working south on Highway C after wrecking the Cordes car. Monday morning when the dogs were put into action they were close behind Faucett when a radio message was received in the cars from a trooper with the dogs said they thought he was cutting across a field.

Trooper Louis Rohls, Eldon, pulled up along the road and climbed a fence and saw the man running. He fired his service revolver once over Faucett and the man stopped. By this time Trooper Stockdell had arrived and they started over toward him, when Faucett fell flat on his face. They at first thought maybe he might have been hit, but when they reached him and told him to get up Faucett displayed plenty of life in jumping to his feet with his hands high in the air.

In the afternoon the Sedalia police received a call a man had been seen northwest of Florence on Hawk Creek and the search was then moved more than six miles northward to that vicinity. The dogs picked up a scent and began baying loudly.

Stockdell had been placed at a rise in a hill and heard the dogs. He was surprised when suddenly Rouse spotted Stockdell about the same time and threw his hands high in the air announcing he was giving up.

The two were then taken to Versailles and lodged in the Morgan County jail.

The Troopers learned that after they had the wreck early Sunday morning they broke into the farm home of Clarence Zimmerschied, near Bahner, and stole some food and a knife, then headed out east on Highway C.

According to Sgt. Van Winkle, who contacted Harold Barriek, prosecuting attorney, he planned to file charges against the two for breaking into the home of Zimmerschied and also car theft in connection with the Cordes car theft.

The two are to be brought back to Pettis County to answer the charges.

Championship Races Wed. On Clinton Track

Rain Halted Event Last Week; $500 Purse at Stake

A sudden downpour of rain last Wednesday night halted the championship races at the Golden Valley Speedway, of Clinton, Mo. The big event was postponed until this Wednesday night, Sept. 18.

There was a large field of cars entered and even more cars are expected for this Wednesday evening.

Not only were the fans disappointed, but some 15 midget hot rodders must wait another week to display their vehicles.

It is planned for the youngsters to stage an exhibition parade laps with a trophy from the Clinton police department to the winner. They will be judged on construction and originality. Cash awards will be given to the other youngsters.

These midget hot rodders themselves will be well worth the price of admission.

Time trials will be underway promptly at 8 p. m. with a full racing program prevailing. Beautiful trophies will be presented to the winners of each event. The main event of the evening, the A Feature, will be 35-long grueling laps.

Snead Takes Dallas Open Going Away

DALLAS (AP)—Sam Snead, who says he wants to win a tournament a year until he's 50 then retire, took the one for 1957 yesterday with the widest margin anywhere since 1955—10 strokes in the $40,000 Dallas Open.

And the colorful old slammer also said he was going to win the National Open—the only tournament that has eluded him in his 21 years of campaigning—before he's 50.

Admitting to 45 yesterday after he had wound up with a 3-under-par 68 for a 264 total over 72 holes and grabbed the $8,000 first money, Snead said he figured he still had enough good golf to finally snare the National Open. "Putting like I have in this tournament I could win it every time," he said.

Snead was winning his 96th tournament according to the PGA record book when he took the Dallas Open.

Snead went into fourth place among the money-winners although he has participated in only 12 of the 32 tournaments this year. He has earned $28,260.83.

Snead's victory by 10 strokes was the longest lead of the year. The best previous was Ken Venturi's 5-stroke triumph at Milwaukee. The widest margin of which the PGA has a record is the 13 strokes Gene Littler won by at Las Vegas in 1955.

Snead entered the final round yesterday with an 8-stroke lead compiled through his record-equaling 60 in the second round and his 66 in the third. The latter gave him 126 for 36 holes and that tied the best ever done.

As the closest challengers, Earl Stewart, Dallas, and Al Bessellink, Grossingers, N.Y., who were in a tie for second with 204 to Snead's 196, faltered. The Slammer rolled along "shooting at par, because I thought that would be all that was needed."

The result was that Snead not only won by a long margin but three fellows charged out of the pack into a tie for second place, each winning $3,066.67. They were Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.; who had a closing 66; Cary Middlecoff of Hollywood, Fla., who had a 69, and Bob Inman of Detroit, who had a 67. All three wound up at 274.

Bessellink was fifth with 275 and won $1,800, while Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., finished next at 276 and got $1,600.

Doctor Tells Lemon Pitching Arm Good For Several Seasons

WASHINGTON (AP)—A doctor has told Bob Lemon that his pitching arm should be okay by spring, and that he should be able to pitch baseball for four or five more years.

Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, said he got that report in a phone call to Lemon at his home in Long Beach, Calif.

The veteran righthander, who will be 37 next Sunday, went home last month after x-rays showed bone chips in his elbow.

Although he had won 20 or more games in seven of the previous nine seasons, he was 6-11 with the Indians this year when he left the team.

"Lem is quite elated," Greenberg said. The pitcher had felt that his career might be at an end.

Marshall Men Drive Buicks To Top Spot

Racing at the Sportsman Speedway, Sunday night, saw Buicks take over the top spots for the program, as Harold Cromley, of Marshall, won the 25-lap "A" Feature, and Harvey Morrow, also of Marshall, was the winner of the "B" feature 20-lap event in his Buick.

Cromley became the winner only after a hard fought battle with Torch Aleshire, of Moberly and Ken Taylor of Slater. He was driving a modified with a 1956 Buick motor. Aleshire was out of the race on the 13th lap as his Studebaker Hawk crashed into a slower car which had spun in front of him. Taylor then moved to second position in his B and D truck line special and was beaten by Cromley only by a few feet.

Walter Sonek, of Columbia, who has been out of circulation for a couple of weeks reported in at the track with his brand new 1957 Pontiac. Walter, a well known and liked driver drove his Pontiac from 15th position to second place in five laps only to be forced out because of the lack of oil pressure.

Don Cooper, of the Cole-Cooper Electric Co., in his new No. 12 with a Mercury motor, drove from 10th position to second in his heat race, but was forced out of the feature because of valve troubles. Morrow also won one of the ten-lap heat races.

The 20 novice drivers had rather a quiet night of it as only four cars hit the wall and only one roll-over occurred in the wild event. The race is held each night for drivers who this year started driving for the first time.

Results: 10-lap event, Aubrey Teckemeyer driving a Chevrolet, first; Woody Carpenter, Ford, second.

10-lap event, Harvey Morrow, first; Don Cooper, second.

10-lap event, Harold Cromley, first; and Walter Sonek, second. 20-lap "B" Feature—Harvey Morrow, first; Bill Rafferty, in a Studebaker, second; Shorty Pace in a Ford, third. 25-lap "A" Feature — Harold Cromley, first; Ken Taylor, second; Gene Mast, Chevrolet, third; Sonny Roverson, Ford, fourth; Chet Dooley, Chevrolet, fifth; Johnnie Gordon, Chevrolet, sixth; and Joe Dennis, Chevrolet, seventh.

T. of C. Assured of Big Field LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The 1958 Tournament of Champions already is assured of a big field. The $40,000 event set for next April at the Desert Inn course, will have Gene Littler seeking his fourth straight T. of C. win.

Mat Thrills For Tonight Are Promised

Two of the Country's leading lady wrestlers will appear in the semi-final event on the opening wrestling card at the Armory tonight. Laura Martinez, the Mexican champion, who has won a great following here in Sedalia will be opposing the Chicago TV champion Kathy Starr. Miss Starr rates slightly above Miss Martinez due to the fact that she recently held Women's World Champion June Byers to a one hour draw in Denver.

The match will be a two out of three fall contest, with popular Jim Dobie in the ring as referee. Jim has recovered fully from his recent operation and this will be his first appearance of the season.

The Main Event on this all star card, a Tag Team Match, will be featured that will bring together as partners "Wild Red" Berry and durable Joe Dusek. They are sure to have their hands full since their opponents are the highly rated Bill "Red" McIntyre and "Scissors King" Scotty Williams. This will be the first time this team has combined also, so things should start off even up, with both teams having the same advantages.

"Wild Red" Berry, who has enjoyed a long string of victories in the past year and who is one of Television's best attractions has accepted the challenge of scissors expert Scotty Williams to a one fall match that should be a show-stealer in itself and surely is the equivalent of a Main Event. Berry prides himself in the fact that he can usually outsmart any opponent with his clever style in the ring. From all indications Berry may have outsmarted himself this time, since Scotty Williams is known to show no mercy once he applies his famous stretch scissors. No wrestler has ever been known to escape being pinned once Scotty properly applies this dangerous submission hold.

With the Tag Team Match, a Girl's match and the Berry-Williams challenge match, this card should be one of the season's best. There will be no advance in prices and doors open at 7:15 p. m.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Pitcher Frank Barnes, owner of the lowest earned run average the past season in the American Assn., was purchased yesterday from Omaha by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Barnes, a 29-year-old right-hander, compiled a 2.41 ERA and had a 12-10 won-lost record at Omaha, a Cardinal fan club.

The 6-foot, 170-pounder would not be eligible for World Series competition should the Cards overtake the stumbling Milwaukee Braves. Barnes performed in the Cardinal spring training camp this year but didn't stick with the parent club.

No Other Forecast Ventured

Conference Has New Name, But Same Team Has Odds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's a new season—an addition to the family has resulted in a new league name—but the Big Eight (former Big Seven) football crown has tactically been bestowed on Oklahoma again.

This doesn't mean that the other league members aren't interested. It's just that no one will venture any other forecast until the Sooners are duly recorded on the short end of a league game.

Oklahoma State University at Stillwater is the new addition but OSU will not be eligible for the football title until 1960.

The Big Eight opens its season Saturday with a full slate of eight non-conference games. Three are night games.

Coach Chuck Mather of Kansas plans to employ a few of Oklahoma's offensive strategies against the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University at Fort Worth in one of the arc-light games.

Mather has been working his charges long and hard on the quick kick and the run-pass option—both of which have returned profits for the Sooners.

The Jayhawks appear to have one of the fastest backfield combinations in the league with Bob Marshall at quarterback, Homer Floyd and Charlie McCue at the halfbacks and Don Feller at fullback.

Mather's chief worry continues to be defense.

Linebackers Paul Swoboda, Chet Vanatta and DeWitt Lewis will try to plug any leaks in the line. Floyd has been operating in the deep secondary.

The Jayhawks with a 3-6-1 record in 1956 will be trying for their first victory over TCU since 1952 and only their third in 12 games.

Undermanned Iowa State will go against Denver at Ames Saturday. Oklahoma runs into Pittsburgh in one of the top national games. Kansas State plays at Wyoming. Colorado goes to Washington. Nebraska plays Washington State at Lincoln.

Missouri plays Vanderbilt at Nashville and Oklahoma State meets Arkansas at Little Rock in the other night games.

Light workouts were the rule around the league yesterday as the teams studied opposition defense and polished their own running and passing attacks.

Heavy Cross-Country Schedule

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (AP)—St. John's University will compete in 10 cross-country meets in the fall. These include six dual meets, two triangular meets and the ICAA and Metropolitan championships.

Coach Bill Ward of the Metropolitan champions says he has lost only one athlete from last year's team which won six of seven dual meets, losing only to St. Joseph's of Philadelphia.

What Did Haney Tell His Braves?

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

What was it Manager Fred Haney said in his "wee bit of a pep talk" with the Milwaukee Braves? It didn't last long, just about three minutes before last night's game with Philadelphia. Haney later said he mentioned that a 2½-game lead was nothing to get all choked up about. In fact, it was a real surprise what with five regulars injured and out of the lineup at one time this season. He didn't mention, apparently, that the lead was 3½ just 12 days before.

"Now we're through with all that," Haney said he said, "and all we have to do is go out and swing those bats."

A nice little speech, but a bit out of character for Haney. "How much of a so-and-so salary cut can YOU so-and-so afford?" would be more like it.

Whatever Haney said, it worked. The Braves burst loose for 14 hits and breezed to a 5-1 victory over the Phillies that ended a losing streak at three games and padded their National League lead to three games over idle St. Louis.

Brooklyn's third-place Dodgers were a somewhat bedraggled bunch of "contenders" after last night's 3-2 defeat in 10 innings at Cincinnati.

The American League race stayed put. The first-place New York Yankees were idle and Chicago's second-place White Sox were rained out in their last scheduled appearance at Washington this season.

The Braves got back in business behind Bob Buhl. The black-browed right-hander won his eighth in a row for a 17-6 record with his first complete game in four tries since Aug. 9.

Buhl permitted eight hits, but the Braves tagged southpaw Harvey Haddix for eight and a 4-0 lead within five frames. Del Rice cracked his eighth home run and double for two runs, and Johnny Logan was 3-for-4.

Buhl was making his second start since being sidelined Aug. 18 with a sore shoulder.

The Dodgers, who had taken two of three at Milwaukee before losing the two-game series at Cincinnati, were done in by Joe Taylor, who drove in all three Redlegs runs with two homers, and a bases-loaded walk from right-handed reliever Ed Roebuck in the 10th. The Brooks intentionally walked pinch hitter Moky Burgess, a left-hander, to load the bases for Taylor.

Johnny Klippstein, 7-11, was the winner. Southpaw Johnny Podres (12-8) was the loser.

The University of Michigan campus has 31 different libraries containing a total of 2,055,139 volumes.

This year, about 150,000 Americans will be saved from cancer.

Is Confident Dodgers Will Accept Offer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The man who drafted this city's first firm offer to lure the Brooklyn Dodgers to Los Angeles says:

"The proposal is a splendid opportunity for Walter O'Malley and the Dodgers. It is also a splendid opportunity for Los Angeles to acquire major league baseball."

Harold C. McClellan, Los Angeles' legate to the court of O'Malley, said he is confident the Dodger president will accept the proposal. It was passed 12-3 yesterday during a stormy, five-hour session of the City Council.

During the discussion, Mayor Norris Poulson—who last May announced that the Dodgers were as good as warming up in Los Angeles—dramatically told the councilmen: "This is our hour of decision...If we don't move we're dead...Are we going to be a bush league town?...You've lost your guts if you table this action."

McClellan told The Associated Press two major hurdles still must be cleared:

The Dodgers, of course, must accept the offer.

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors must agree to develop more than two million dollars in roads adjacent to the proposed site for the Dodgers in Chavez Ravine.

The supervisors, with three of the necessary five votes already pledged, were expected to vote the necessary road funds today.

Then, McClellan said, the proposal will be sent officially to O'Malley, who so far has issued only a terse "no comment."

Basically the offer is this: In exchange, the Dodgers would give the city Wrigley Field.

The city would spend no more than two million dollars to level the proposed Chavez Ravine site.

Boris Morros Legend Grows With Facts

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — The story of Boris Morros grows more legend-ary as the exploits of his spying against the Russians are revealed. His years in Hollywood also are surrounded by legend, but some facts can be ascertained.

He did not write "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," as he has claimed. It is credited to Leon Jessel.

He did not compose and conduct hundreds of movie scores, as he also declares. His only big studio job was as head of Paramount's music department, a supervisory post.

But Morros' real achievements in Hollywood were almost as impressive as his exploits in espionage. A co-worker recalls that Morros started with Paramount as a leader of traveling stage show bands in 1925. He was popular at the circuit's Memphis theater and was held over as regular conductor. He returned to New York as head of stage conductors for the chain, and later took charge of all music.

He came to Paramount Studios in 1935, hoping to become a producer. But he was placed in command of the music department.

"His job was to find the right people for the right job — composers, orchestrators, etc.," recalled a fellow worker. "He never composed or conducted, though often he would stand behind the conductor and keep the beat."

"He was very creative and brought to the studio some fine artists like Leopold Stokowski, Gladys Swarthout and Kirsten Flagstad. He also brought Stokow-

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers

Mrs. Irma Heins was installed president of the Concordia American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday night. Others installed were: Mrs. Laverna Meyer, first vice-president; Mrs. Helen Meineke, second vice-president; Mrs. Minerva Hinek, treasurer; Mrs. Ruby Dean Freerking, historian; and Mrs. Ella Schlapper, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Edna Pauley, district chairman, was the installing officer. A donation of $25 was given to the park fund.

ski to the Hollywood Bowl for the first time and had the Bowl wired for sound with the finest equipment."

At the end of his three-year contract in 1938, Morros left Paramount to fulfill his ambition to produce. He induced William LeBaron, then Paramount Studio boss, to join him.

Morros produced "Flying Deuces" with Laurel and Hardy, "Second Chorus" with Fred Astaire, the all-star "Tales of Manhattan" and the longhair "Carnegie Hall." None prospered at the box office.

It was ironic that his greatest — and most successful production was his 12-year deception of the wily Russians, a real-life performance more fantastic than anything he could produce on the screen.

(Tomorrow: How Morros himself was duped by a wily agent.)

Judge Orders Witness List To Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — The government has been ordered to hand over to counsel for Rudolf I. Abel, alleged Russian spy, a list of witnesses who will be called to testify against him at his trial.

Federal Judge Mortimer W. Byers in Brooklyn ordered yesterday that the defense be given the list next Thursday. He stipulated that the address of Reino Hayhanen, a former member of a Russian spy ring, be kept secret from Abel's court-appointed lawyer, is to get the address in confidence. Hayhanen was named as a coconspirator in the indictment and is slated to be the government's chief witness.

Abel's trial was advanced four days to Sept. 26. On that date, Byers is to rule on whether Donovan will get a bill of particulars detailing the charges in the three-count indictment.

Abel was indicted Aug. 7 and charged with collecting and transmitting atomic and defense secrets to the Soviet Union. If convicted, he could face a death penalty.

In another spy case in US District Court in Manhattan yesterday, counsel for Mrs. Myra Sobel, confessed Soviet spy, filed a motion to reduce a 5½-year sentence imposed on her Aug. 9.

Deputy Sheriff Gene Miller was enroute to investigate a complaint when he saw a 700-pound black steer struck broadside by a motorist. The force of the impact tossed the steer into the air and over the car.

Miller stopped to drag the animal off the highway. When he nudged it with his foot, the steer jumped to its feet, glared balefully at Miller and raced off to join his 12 companions along the road.

UN Assembly Starts Crucial Session Today

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly embarks today on crucial session expected to bring the thorny disarmament issue to a head.

The first session will be devoted mainly to election of a new Assembly president to succeed Thailand's Prince Wan Wathayakon and approval of Malay's admission as the U.N.'s 82nd member.

Both the United States and Russia want disarmament high on this year's agenda.

Secretary of State Dulles is expected to focus on the issue in a 45-minute policy speech Thursday. So is Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Diplomats looked to Syria to clarify its position in the Soviet orbit when the question of Russian penetration in the Middle East comes up for debate.

There was considerable speculation in U.N. corridors as to how the Communists' perennial demand for seating Red China would come up this year.

The Russians could bring the question up at the Assembly opening, but it is believed they will wait until the Steering Committee takes up India's proposal that the issue be made a formal agenda item.

Despite Soviet efforts, Red China's bid appears headed for another flat rebuff. Britain is supporting the U.S. stand against seating the Chinese Communists in the 1957 Assembly. A U.S. spokesman said there also is strong support from other quarters.

The disarmament debate will be based mainly on a report of the London talks of the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee — Russia, the Big Three and Canada.

Sikeston Has Extra Force Of Policemen

(This is another in a series of stories about Missouri.)

By ROBERT E. YORK, SR., The Daily Sikeston Standard.

SIKESTON, Mo. — Sikeston has a police force capable of taking care of a city twice its population of 12,000.

The reason is a hard working, highly trained and well equipped auxiliary police force of 25 members.

Organized four years ago as part of the Sikeston Civil Defense and Disaster Agency, the unit was sworn in as part of the regular police force two years later. Earlier the men had been made Scott County deputies.

The addition of the 25 Auxiliary officers to the regular force of 12 costs the city only $100 a month. In return the Auxiliary force agrees to furnish 32 man hours of work a week. However, as the record shows, the part time officers have put in as many as 300 extra hours a week.

They operate regularly, and in rotation, riding squad cars with the regular officers, walking beats, taking turns as radio operators, and, in fact, performing every duty of the regular force.

In addition the unit has its own ambulance, or as it is styled, emergency vehicle, which the members built and equipped themselves; four cars equipped with two-way radios tuned in on the city police frequency and a portable radio which while normally used with the ambulance, is also used in planes or on posse work in the field.

The members of the Auxiliary buy their own uniforms and equipment and, as individuals, receive no pay from the city. They are a strictly volunteer organization that adheres to all police rules and regulations and are on call at any hour of the day or night by either Chief of Police Arthur Bruce or Sheriff John Dennis and have answered numerous calls. They have gone as far as to re-capture escapees from jail; to hunt malefactors wanted on criminal charges; they do traffic control work and, in short, perform every function of the regularly appointed police and sheriff's deputies.

In addition, every member is required to learn first aid and the Auxiliary now has qualified instructors, approved by the American Red Cross, who have conducted first aid training courses in Scott and adjoining counties.

The unit has created such a reputation for handling traffic at fairs, ball games and other public gatherings that the requests for their services are more than the Unit can possibly meet. On file with the Unit are commendatory letters of thanks from just about every city of any size in southeast Missouri.

Major James Hahn, present commander of the Auxiliary, says the goal of the Unit is to expand into a county-wide organization for better service to Scott County as a whole.

"There are no easy riders on this force," is the way Mayor Hahn describes the discipline in the unit. "Every member of the Auxiliary is an active member, subject to call as needed. We have no 'honorary members.' When a member, for business or personal reasons finds it is impossible for him to meet the requirements of membership he is dropped from the active roll. Our men are all workers."

Principal Takes Action After Egg Throwing

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The principal of Greensboro Senior High School intervened yesterday after an unidentified student threw an egg at Josephine Ophelia Boyd, the only Negro in the school.

Meanwhile at Charlotte, the father of Dorothy Counts, 15-year-old Negro, reaffirmed his earlier announcement that she would not return to white Harding High School where she had been the only Negro enrolled.

Principal A. P. Routh told students at the Greensboro school: "We have a problem at Senior High that all of us must work on. I must remind you of your responsibility to your school and to yourselves."

Routh addressed the student body a few hours after an egg was tossed at, and missed, Miss

Boyd. It was the third egg which had been thrown at the girl since she entered the school week before last.

The Rev. Herman L. Counts told newsmen in Charlotte that apparently the statements of his daughter during a Washington television interview had been misconstrued.

Counts said the decision to withdraw his daughter from the white high school still stood.

He originally announced Dorothy's withdrawal last Thursday after students had spat upon and tossed an eraser and piece of tin at her the previous day.

A group of white parents in Greensboro have filed an appeal to the State Supreme Court, seeking to block integration of the schools.
